Long admired and internationally renowned traditional Japanese indigo dye is said to become a deeper hue the more it is used. Giyaman Aizome's elegant dark blue coloring, similar to the one used by traditional potters to decorate their fine works, is different in that it has been recreated in an original radiant glaze, exudes perceptions of dignity, and has been selected for use by the modern consumer.

The chrysanthemum styling and classic coloring provides for a wide range of uses. The plate is most suitable for cuisine and desserts served from early summer to autumn. It can be paired with the Giyaman Aizome Blue Plate (15 cm) as a saucer.

Dimensions: L12 x W12 x H4.5 cm
